

Major HIV turnaround forecast

AIDS SA is expected to make a dramatic turnaround on HIV infections due to a change in government policies, a UNAIDS official said yesterday. "It now has more people with HIV infections than any country in the world, with 5,6-million," said Sheila Tlou, regional director for east and southern Africa. "However, there is a turnaround in the new government." Sapa-AFP

Major HIV turnaround forecast

Date: 20 January 2012

Page Number: 3

Language: English

Categories: Aids - General

Publication: BUSINESS DAY

Author: Sapa-AFP

The copyright act of 1978 (as amended) prohibits the reproduction of this copy IN ANY FORMAT, (See Clause 5 Terms & Conditions) without prior permission of the original publisher.