

Q: Will private medical insurance be possible under the NHI?

A: In its current format, private insurance, or medical schemes, will only cover services not covered by the NHI. It is referred to as complementary cover in the NHI white paper. So it will cover services such as advanced dentistry and rare conditions not covered by the NHI. This will lead to the number of medical schemes greatly reducing in number.