

Q: Does the NHI have an age restriction for people above 65 or can they also apply?

A: NHI will be universal and applicable to all citizens of South Africa. All residents will be eligible for cover for services, irrespective of age. One will not have to “apply” to be part of the NHI, citizens will automatically be part of it. There will, however, be a process to register and get a benefit card.